2023-2024 SCHOOL PROFILE

THE SCHOOL AND COMMUNITY

Bridgeton High School is a public community high school located in Bridgeton, New Jersey, the county seat of Cumberland County. The City of Bridgeton is surrounded by miles of farmland and agriculture plays a significant role in the local economy. The high school also serves as a receiving school for two rural school districts and two local private schools. Bridgeton Public Schools is made up of seven district schools and is governed by a nine-member elected Board of Education.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Bridgeton Public School District is to provide multiple pathways for all students to attain the New Jersey Student Learning Standards and meet the needs of our diverse student population. All students will be provided with the opportunity and resources to succeed through the creation of state-of-the-art safe learning environments which will ultimately enable all students to graduate from high school and become productive members of a global community.

ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

Bridgeton High School offers a variety of college preparatory, honors, and Advanced Placement academic courses, as well as a number of elective offerings aligned with students interests and career goals. In addition, the district holds partnerships with local colleges and technical schools, allowing students to earn college credits and/or trade certification prior to graduation.
